PHILOSOPHY OF ATHLETICS

In order to meet the needs of society today, the role of athletics in the curriculum has changed considerably. Athletics serve to develop, through proper coaching techniques, the following objectives:

1. Teamwork – The coach seeks to develop attitudes of self-sacrifice, subordination of individual desires, courage, loyalty, devotion to a cause, and other attitudes that enhance the realization of a team effort. Working successfully with others is a practice that will help students for many years to come.
2. Sportsmanship – The coach seeks to teach proper moral and ethical patterns of conduct that will serve the athlete throughout life. Creating a positive environment and positive role models for the athlete will help to develop appropriate attitudes toward others.
3. Promote life time fitness – It is necessary to teach the benefits of being physically fit and how proper health habits will help to create a better quality of life and longevity.
4. Positive Attitudes – The coach should strive to develop proper attitudes toward victory and defeat. Athletes can learn many lessons from winning as well as losing. Learning how to face defeat can teach athletes many lessons. If an athlete has given their best effort, then he/she is truly a winner.
5. Setting goals – Athletics provides an excellent model for students to set goals for themselves and implement a plan to reach those goals.

Athletics can provide this avenue for individual and team oriented goals.

6. Self discipline-Athletics instills self discipline. Self discipline is doing what needs to be done; when it needs to be done; and doing it the same way every time.
7. Responsibility-Knowing that each individual's actions will affect the people around him / her in a positive or negative way.
8. Accountability-Knowing that each individual's actions will affect them self, and that each individual must acknowledge and accept the consequences of their actions.

Athletics provides one of the finest ways in which our young people can develop into responsible men and women. Lessons can be learned in athletics that can assist young people in making appropriate decisions throughout life. Athletics serves to give students a positive focus on which to strive. Athletics is not a right, but a privilege. Athletes will be held to higher standards. Athletes are not entitled to special privileges, be thankful for the opportunities that have been presented to you.

ACADEMICS

All athletic programs in the Keene I.S.D. will be governed by eligibility and contest rules as listed in the Constitution and Contest Rules of the University Interscholastic League and rules governing extracurricular activities adopted by the State Board of Education and the State Legislature.

1. No Pass No Play – Athletes must pass all classes with a 70% or above, on a scale of 100, at the end of each six weeks grading period to be eligible to participate. Failure to pass will result in the athlete being ineligible to participate in any contest from five working days after the end of the next grading period. If after fifteen working days from the athlete becoming ineligible, he/she is passing all classes (not just the class that was failed) then he/she regains eligibility. The ineligible athlete must still practice with the team during the ineligible period but may not travel, sit on the bench, or participate in any contest. Student-athletes that fail or are endanger of failing will be placed on academic probation. Any athlete placed on academic probation will be required to attend additional study hall and regular student planner checks. Continued academic problems can also result in discipline actions, suspension or dismissal from athletics.

2. Academic progress will be closely monitored. Coaches will check UIL reports and send out progress reports.
3. Student-athletes are required to follow class and school policies.
4. Be enthusiastic in the class room; not just on the court. Academics are the gate way to your future.
5. Each student-athlete is required to use a student planner (folder) and is responsible for organizing their academic schedule.
6. Mandatory tutorials / study hall are required by each student-athlete. Student-athletes must sign the tutorial sheet and is responsible for maintaining high academic standards.
7. Advanced classes eligibility criteria: Honors-60%, AP-60%, Dual Credit-60%.

DISCIPLINE

1. An athlete who does not maintain appropriate behavior in athletics or in the classroom is subject to be disciplined by the coaching staff.
2. A student who is suspended from school, placed in in-school suspension, or placed in an alternative behavior classroom for serious misconduct will not be permitted to participate in athletics until they have been reinstated in school.
3. Any student found guilty of engaging in serious misconduct can be declared ineligible from participation in all extracurricular activities for a certain period of time to be determined by the coach and /or administration. Possible penalties include Code Reds, game suspension, suspension for the remainder of the semester, suspension for the remainder of that sport, and suspension for the remainder of the school year.
4. Any student arrested and convicted of a misdemeanor or indicted because of a felony resulting in probation or parole may be suspended from all athletic events for the duration of the probation or parole. In addition to this, the athlete may be removed from the athletic program for the remainder of the school year or permanently if deemed necessary by the coach and administration.
5. If an athlete is ejected from a contest by the officials for misconduct, that player may not be allowed to participate in the next contest. If more than one ejection occurs, the athlete may be subject to further disciplinary action.
6. Code Reds are physical reprimands that are administered by the coaches of that particular sport. The severity of the reprimand may depend on the coaches and the severity of the misconduct. High level discipline issues will be decided by a discipline committee of coaches, athletic director and administrator.

Levels of Discipline:

- a. Code Red-Level 1
- b. Code Red-Level 2
- c. Code Red-Level 3
- d. 3 Strike Policy (see dismissal from athletics)
- e. Suspension from contest
- f. Suspension from season
- g. Suspension from athletics

Without discipline, winning cannot take place. Success begins and ends with discipline.

DISMISSAL FROM ATHLETICS

If an athlete is removed from the athletic program by the coach for violations of the student handbook, or athletic code then they must receive permission from the coaching staff reenter the athletic program. Removal from athletics is governed by the three strike policy. On the third strike the athlete is removed from athletics and can only be reinstated by the coaching staff. The athlete is required to sign a form for documentation when a strike is administered followed by parent contact. Each strike is carried from one sport to the next the entire year. The next year begins a new set of strikes. If an athlete without any strikes commits an offense that is worthy of direct dismissal from athletics; the coaches of that athlete and the athletic director will meet to determine the consequences.

Strikes are as followed:

- verbal / physical confrontation with teammates
- disqualification from a game
- excessive absences / tardies
- excessive class room disturbances
- disrespectful to coaches, teachers, students, or administrators
- excessive misconduct of athletic code or student hand book
- excessive academic failure
- inappropriate behavior detrimental to the team

QUITTING

If an athlete quits a sport for any reason, then the athlete may not be permitted to participate in another sport until the sport that he/she quit is completed. Any athlete that quits a sport will be placed in a conditioning program during the athletic period allowing the student to obtain credit for the class.

Any athlete that quits a sport will not be allowed to enter another sport without the permission of the coaching staff and athletic director.

Once a student joins athletics; that student is required to remain in athletics for the entire year. Removal from the athletic period can only occur by a counseling session with coaches, parents, and administrators.

COMMUNICATION

Parenting and coaching are extremely difficult positions. By establishing a strong line of communication, the parents and coaches can provide greater benefits to the student-athletes. Communicating practice and game schedules is very important to the Keene ISD coaching staff. Schedules and events will be posted on Keene ISD website under the athletic portal.

Parents can also join the Keene Athletics team app to receive athletic schedules and events. Go to app store and download Team App. Register under the Keene Chargers and get connected to athletic events.

Communication-Coach

1. Expectations of student-athletes.
2. Locations and times of practices and athletic events.
3. Discipline of student-athlete pertaining to suspension from contest or athletics.
4. Team requirements: equipment, UIL forms, physicals etc...

Communication-Parents

1. Conflict Resolution Chain of Command:
 - a. Coach-Athlete
 - b. Coach-Athlete-Parent
 - c. Coach-Athletic Director-Parent-Athlete
 - d. Coach-Athletic Director-Principal-Parent
 - e. Coach-Athletic Director-Superintendent-Parent
2. Notification of any schedule conflicts.
3. Any issues concerning student-athlete that the coach should be informed about.

Coaches are professionals. They make decisions based on what is best for the team in relation to work ethic, attitude, practice, games, academics... Two topics that will not be discussed with a parent are playing time and/or other students.

If a situation arises that requires a conference between coach and parent; the parent needs to call the coach during school hours and arrange an appointment to speak with the coach. The parent must not try to meet with a coach before or after an athletic contest. Those situations usually tend to promote a negative outcome.

ATHLETIC TRAINER

Keene ISD Athletic Trainer is an amazing resource to help facilitate the evaluation, treatment and return to play of Keene student-athletes. The athletic trainer is available every day for evaluation, treatment, and rehabilitation of athletic injuries. The role of the athletic trainer is to determine if an injury is in need of medical attention by a physician. It is very important the athlete sees the athletic trainer to help with this decision. It can save the athlete and his/her parent/guardian time and money. Once the decision has been made, the athletic trainer will help facilitate a visit with a physician to ensure the proper care is being provided. If the injury does not require the attention of a physician, then all necessary treatment and rehabilitation will be done by the athletic trainer. Athletic injury, treatment and rehab protocol:

1. Athlete report to coach at beginning of workout.
2. Coach will send athlete to trainer to get evaluated.
3. Trainer will evaluate athlete.
4. Trainer determine athletic status.
5. Coach will be notified on status of athlete. Documentation on Google Team Drive under Athletic Training.
6. Parent will be contacted if athlete can not participate in workouts or competition.
7. If the athlete is restricted from workout or competition; the athlete is still required to arrive at workout on time, dress out in workout gear, report to coach, report to trainer for treatment and return to team in workout gear.

HAZING / BULLYING

Hazing is any intentional, knowing or reckless act directed against a student, by one person alone or acting with others that endanger the mental or physical health or the safety of a student for the purpose of being initiated into, affiliating with, holding office in, or maintaining membership in any organization whose members is to include other students. 2. There is an imbalance of physical or psychological power between bully and victim.

3. The bullying action is repetitive, occurring over a period of time. Although single acts of aggression must be addressed, most students who experience an occasional unpleasant or even aggressive act in school are able to handle such incidents.

Any of these offenses may range in game(s) suspensions to expulsion from athletics.

SUBSTANCE ABUSE

Students are responsible for their conduct at all times. Students must remember that extracurricular and co-curricular activities are not a right, but a privilege. In doing so, student athletes are under their own set of rules and regulations as approved by the KISD Administration and Coaching Staff. Keene ISD will have random drug test.

Keene Athletic procedures for pick up and drop off are extremely important in ensuring the safety and supervision of the Keene ISD student-athletes.

High School athletes are to be dropped off and picked up at the KISD field house in the parking lot directly by field house west entrance. Student-athletes are required to wait under the overhang of west side of field house. Student-athletes will wait inside the field house in the case of inclement weather until rides arrive.

Student-athletes that are not picked up in a timely manner on a regular basis will not be allowed to travel with athletic teams to away events.

TRANSPORTATION

Transportation to all school related athletic events will be provided by bus or van. All athletes must ride to the contest and back to school in the bus or van with the rest of the team. If the parent needs to transport an athlete to or from an event the parent must make prior arrangements with the coach and must sign a travel release form. In an event of an emergency, an athlete may ride home with his/her parent, but must sign the travel release form.

Athletes will not be released to any person other than the parent unless the parent makes prior arrangements with the coach releasing their child to another adult. Upon arriving back to the school from an athletic contest, it will be the responsibility of the athlete to find transportation home. The school and coaches do not assume any responsibility if a student chooses to ride home with another student or walk home.
